THE WAITERS.

Our custom of tipping hotel boys and table waiters is a relic of barbarism.
Rev. J. W. Wadman, M. E. church, January 24.

There are incoherent waiters,
And waiters who are rough;
Apolgetic waiters
And waiters who are tough.
There are waiters quite forgetful,
And absent-minded, too,
And waiters always waiting For that little tip from you.

There's the waiter at Delmonico's,
With his blank Parisian stare,
Who calls the butter Beurrey,
The potatoes pome de tare;
Who comes with supercilious air
In answer to your call,
As if it were an honor
To notice you at all.

There's the thin and sporty waiter
Who never takes your hat,
And makes a bowling alley
Of the table you are at;
Who rolls the dishes down at you Regardless of their falls,
As if you were a nine-pin
And they were bowling balls.

There's the waiter at the seaside,
With his life of gilded ease;
He's the one who's always waiting For those customary fees;
He will stare you to submission
If his tip you should refuse,
But treat you like a monarch
If you give to him his dues.

There's the waiter that's attentive
And exceedingly polite,
Who sees that what you order
Is served exactly right;
Your merest wish anticipates With such a cheerful will,
Though you mean to tip a quarter—
He often gets a bill.

THE HAWAIIAN ANNUAL.

with its fund of information pertaining to these Islands, should be in every office, library and household throughout the Territory for ready reference.
Visitors and others will find this handbook covers their many points of enquiry better than any other half dozen publications, and all persons departing should not forget to be equipped with a copy, not only for their own satisfaction, but for the aid it will afford them to answer the many conundrums relative to Hawaii that everyone "from Honolulu" meets with in going abroad. And for the varied character of its information it is the best kind of promotion literature to mail abroad. Price, 75 cents per copy, or $8.00 per dozen. Thos. G. Thrum, publisher.

HILO SAKA BREWERY.

Hilo Japanese do not intend to let a mere anti-importation law hinder them from growing merry over the flowing bowl. They have formed a new sake-brewing company, and, according to Collector of Internal Revenue Walter F. Drake, who will send one of his deputies to Hilo soon, will have their plant in operation by the first of February. K. Koizumi is the name of the Japanese who is at the head of the new concern.
